1. Wiley Researcher Academy login page:
Please access the academy using your credentials.

2. Wiley Researcher Academy homepage:
In the homepage, scroll down to view all the learning paths available.

3. Select a learning Path
See a short description of each learning path and select the one you want to access.

4. The learning paths are broken into sub sections as shown on the left menu.
You should start by watching the Be inspired video.
Some modules offer an Open question section for you to participate with.

You click into the modules to work through the learning path.

You can track your progress in the ACTIVITY section.

Finally, you can continue through to the Final exam to demonstrate your understanding of the learning path. Navigate back to the Home page by clicking here and select your next Learning Path.
